

Back to School

After a two month summer break with their families, the AVANI students returned in mid June to prepare for the new school year.

AVANI will be admitting as many as 15 new rescued children this year.